

The University of Jordan
Faculty of Dentistry
Department of Oral Surgery, Oral Medicine and Periodontology
Summer Semester

Course Title: Oral Pathology Clinical

Course Code: 1301352

Prerequisite: taken with 1301354

Course Coordinator: Prof Faleh Sawair

Instructor:

Name: Prof. Faleh Sawair

Office Number: 203 and 305

Office Phone: 23571

E-mail: sawair@ju.edu.jo

Year: 3rd year

Credit: 1/2 credit hour

Prerequisite for: consider essential for all other dental courses particularly Oral Medicine & Oral Surgery

Course Objectives:

- To teach the students how to describe the clinical and radiological features of the most common and important oral diseases discussed in Oral Pathology Theory 1 (1301354).
- To enable the students to review the histopathological features of the most important and common oral diseases discussed in Oral Pathology Theory 1 (1301354).
- To stimulate the cognitive abilities of the students by analysing the various features of the disease to reach the correct diagnosis.
- To teach the student how to write short notes about a disease that includes its most important features.

- To train students how to gather information about some important concepts using the internet or published scientific papers.

Learning Outcomes:

Successful completion of this module should lead to the following learning outcomes:

A. Knowledge and Understanding (student should)

A1) Understand the most important concepts of the diseases that have been discussed in Oral Pathology Theory 1.

B. Intellectual skills - with ability to

B1) Describe the clinical, radiological and histopathological features of an oral disease.
B2) Formulate a differential diagnosis.

C. Subject specific skills – with ability to

C1) Use scientific literature effectively.
C2) Prepare written reports about certain oral diseases or conditions.

D. Transferable skills – with ability to

D1) Work effectively in case of an oral exam
D2) Work effectively in examining patients and recognizing normal oral anatomy and variations of normal.

Teaching methods:

- Duration: 8 weeks, 16 hours in total.
- Tutorial sessions: one tutorial session of 2-hour duration every week.

Modes of assessment:

- Students are assessed throughout the semester with requirements accounting for 60% of the mark and the final exam accounting for 40%.
- 60% Continuous assessment:
 - 30% Quizzes: 4 (5-10-minute) quizzes at the beginning of the tutorial session. The quiz with the lowest mark will not be considered for the student.

- 10% Tutorial contribution.
- 20% Midterm exam: slide interpretation.
- 40% Final Exam: slide interpretation.

Attendance policy:

Tutorial session attendance is obligatory. You are responsible for all the material covered in the tutorial sessions since you could be asked about it in the midterm or final exam of Oral Pathology Theory 1 (1301354).

Expected workload: on average you should expect to spend between 2 and 3 hours per week on this course.

Course content & weight:

The diseases discussed in Oral Pathology Theory 1 (1301354).

Supporting material:

- The recommended textbooks for Oral Pathology Theory 1 (1301354).
- Numerous internet websites that include clinical, radiological and histopathological pictures of oral diseases.